FRIDAY, FEB. 8, 1884.

Weymouth Historical Society.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of this society was held on the 4th Feby., the day's meeting having been postponed on account of a severe storm. The regular reports of the officers were made, of which abstracts will be found below. The following officers were elected for the year:

President, Elias Richards; Vice President, John J. Loud; Secretary, Gilbert Nash; Cor. Secy., Rev. Mr. T. T. Tresser; Treasurer, George S. Baker; Librarian, J. A. Blane; Executive Committee, consisting of the above, and Rev. Lucien H. Frary; Committee on Nomination, J. L. Loud, S. W. Reed and A. G. Gibbons; Library Committee, Gilbert Nash; Miss Susan H. Richards and J. V. Armington; Finance Committee, J. J. Loud, Gilbert Nash, Geo. S. Baker.

The Treasurer's report shows balance on hand Jan. 1, 1883, $2,54; receipts 132½; payments, 115.40; balance on hand Feb. 1, 1884, 49.45.

The Library Committee stand in their report that while the contributions for the year to the department in their charge have not been as numerous or valuable as those of some years past, they have been sufficient to induce a continued interest on the part of its friends in the objects and work of the society.

Among the donations reported at the different meetings of the society during the year, there have been 27 bound volumes, 65 pamphlets and 7 papers and documents. The society has also been presented with three framed pictures, of which two are of the meeting-house of the North Parish, built in 1751 and razed in 1832. One presented by Mr. James Ford, was drawn probably by Mr. Richard Norton, son of Rev. Jacob Norton, pastor of the church. It dates from the beginning of the century, and is a view of the northerly exposure of the building. The other was presented by Mr. Wm. C. Garrison, Esq., of Boston, to contribute to her library. This was dedicated some twenty years later than the former, at a point just to the rear of the old school-house, and exhibits the southerly view of the meeting-house. The picture also includes the school-house and the old Dr. Cotton Tufts mansion. The third picture, presented by Thomas Mims, Esq., of Boston, is an engraving from a painting by Miss Quincy, of the ancient dwelling house of Rev. John Wilson, one of the earliest ministers of Boston. This house stood upon what is now Hancock street, Quincy, and the sketch was taken in 1846.

While fully appreciating the courtesy of the Trustees of Tufts Library, in granting the use of their building for the use of its collection, the committee regrets the necessity which presents that institution, in the lack of sufficient room for its own purposes, from giving the Historical Society the accommodation that it needs, in order that its library may be accessible to the public. As it is, the books and papers cannot be conveniently arranged for easy use.

The report also acknowledges the receipt from Mrs. Maria Weston Chapman, of a brass badge, worn by a Mr. Blanchard, of South Weymouth, upon his hat, during the Revolutionary war, and bearing the following legend—"No Slavery"; also from A. W. Clapp, a set of the various denominations of Confederate money, from many sources; one dollar bills; and from Mr. James D. Viator, thirty-two coins, tokens and pocket pieces, of various date and nationalities.

The committee also suggest that a little interest and work on the part of the members would greatly enlarge its library and add much to its value and usefulness; as the society has no funds upon which to draw for this purpose, but must depend wholly upon the generosity of its friends, this suggestion is a timely one.

The Recording Secretary, in his fifth annual report, says that during the year several important changes have been made in the contributions of the society, by which a small entrance fee is required and a small annual subscription made.

It was thought that these changes would add to the interests of the association, open the principle that a privilege to be valued must cost something. The following papers have been presented and read at the meetings of the society:

By J. W. Armstrong, Esq.—"Weymouth Landing from 1870 to 1822," in two parts.

To the Recording Secretary.—"The Early Torreys of Weymouth"; and "Weymouth in the Revolutionary War", by Hon. J. W. Porter.

The College Graduates of Weymouth, by H. A. Newton, Esq.

"Some account of the Weymouth and Braintree Academy".

At the request of the society the town of Weymouth has contributed a thousand dollars for the purpose of collecting materials for a history of the town, and a committee was appointed to take the management in charge. This committee employed Rev. S. K. B. Parsons to look up the various sources of information for matter pertaining to the early history of the town. He spent about a month in these researches, meeting with considerable success, until other duty compelled him to resign his position.

The committee next employed Rev. Augustus Titus to examine, arrange and catalogue the books and papers in possession of the town, down to the year 1822, which he accomplished very satisfactorily, and the index is now in the hands of the committee.

This work has been long needed and will be of much value in looking up material concerning the town's history. Until this was done no one knew what material of this character the town had.

During the year the work of preparing a history of Norfolk County was commenced by a Philadelphia house, and the sketch of Weymouth which was assigned to a member of the committee, soon became completed and forwarded to the publishers. It is only a sketch, at best, possibly the foundation of something better.

There is imperative need of a full and thorough history of the town, and the work should be commenced at once. This association should be the organization to begin and carry through, if well done, all the work.

The ladies having provided the supper the next evening was to arrange the tables, which were soon loaded with a bountiful supply of good things, and all seemed to enjoy not only the excellent supper, but all the hours spent together. Mrs. Tyler thought it was more pleasant to give than to receive, so the party was happy indeed, for the evening was a success.

On the 21st of December, the 73d birthday of Mrs. Eliza Simpson, her friends wishing to celebrate the event, surprised her with a few gifts. In the evening, members of the Zion Hill society, of which she is also a member, arrived and held a prayer service which was highly enjoyed by those present.

R. E. Deudifel, humorist, of Weymouth, gave some of his popular readings, in the Universalist Church, Quinton, last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Worcester is visiting in Chicago.

There was a social in the vestry of the Baptist Church last Wednesday evening.

Owing to the illness of her mother, Miss E. A. Parkhurst, first assistant at the High School, was not in her usual place last Monday.

On account of their being no drain, portion of Grant street was flooded during the early part of the week, and for pedestrians it was impossible.

Last Year Party at Hingham.

About 125 couples were in attendance at the Leap Year Party at Loring Hall last Tuesday evening. The party was under the management of the following ladies who made ample preparations for the entire company: Miss Mary E. Lincoln, Miss Robins, Dr. Lincoln, Mrs. Dr. J. H. Loring, Mrs. Dr. W. S. Spowers, Mrs. D. R. Hersey. The door was in charge of the following ladies: Floor Manager, Miss Lizzie B. Cushing; Abby Mrs. F. H. Lincoln, Mrs. Dr. H. E. Spalding, Mrs. T. M. Ware, Mrs. J. D. Burrell, Miss E. M. Melcher, Miss F. H. Loring and Mrs. A. Hunt. Music for dancing was furnished by J. Howard Richardson of Boston. Much credit is due the ladies for the successful manner in which the party was conducted.

Mr. Dayton Litchfield, of North Scituate is to do the mason work on the addition of the Atlantic House, which was built by Messrs. Tibbets & Glover, and Mr. Benjamin Everett, of East Weymouth, will do the mason work in that part which was built by Mr. Punnett of Braintree.

Quite a number of the quarterly reports of the Western Union Telegraph Union Co. have been placed in deposit.

Religious Interests.

As a result of the work of grace in the Methodist church, there were fifty-five persons received on probation last Sabbath morning. Many of these were members of the Sabbath school. We read that there is joy in heaven over such that repeat themselves, and surely we thought, the angels looked down with joy, when that large company came forward as their names were called and stood before the altar of the church, thus publicly confessing Christ. A short, but earnest address was made by the pastor, to those who came forward and also to the church-members, that they should faithfully watch over and help them. This was followed by the Holy Communion, at which in many instances, parents and children came forward for the first time.

A quietness and freedom from excitement has marked all the revival services that have been held, and persons have asked prayers and come to Christ even from a deep conviction in their own hearts that it was the right way. There are several more persons to be received next Sabbath. These promoters are to be formed into a class, to be led by the pastor of the church, S.

Mr. Arthur E. Hobart and family started for their new home at the west on Wednesday noon.

The town schedules for the year 1883 will be ready for distribution in a few days.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a special meeting at their room Saturday evening, Feb. 9, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Francis Cowing, as we are informed, has a calla lily which has blossoms and 100 leaves at present.

Mr. Prentiss Lothrop returned to the west yesterday, to resume operations in the nail works at Cliffwood, W. Va.

Mr. Elmer Tolman has secured a job at Brockton to work and remove his family to that first.

Mr. Augustus Smith has for the past week been unable to work, on account of a very painful felon on his hand.

Monday morning the gates at Reed's crossing were broken off while being lowered.

Martin Dolan's horse's leg was broken the other day and the animal had to be killed.

The Haydn quartette will furnish the greater part of the programme at the social at the Congregational church next Wednesday night.

A subscription paper is being circulated throughout the town for the benefit of the latters of the recent strike at Di-Zier & Co's.

Tenements are in great demand in this part of the town at present, but rumor says they will be plenty in the springtime.

The Eureka boys hold another assembly at English hall on Friday evening, Feb. 16th. The committee have engaged good music for the occasion.

Mr. Abbott C. Bates has taken the contract for the plastering on the annex to the house for the stonemasons to lay the floor to the Atlantic House, Nantasket.

Messrs. H. F. Bates, A. R. Tressell and Frank Raymon, started on Tuesdays evening for Montreal, to attend the Canadian Grand Army convention.

The Congregational Engine company has received invitation to attend the annual annual and upper of the Hollisport Steamer company, which takes place this evening and will attend. Mr. Alvin Raymond, master of the Pierrepont, will speak at the dinner.

Mr. Stover, who occupied a portion of the house of his wife, is to be married to J. C. & H. Merritt.

That bank of earth in front of the Pierrepont estate continues to cave with every now, and it is only a question of time when the house itself may be dumped upon the sidewalk. It is a nuisance which should be abated.

The Sunday Herald and Globe were missing at the landing last Sunday, but the matter will be arranged for the next issue.

A couple of residents of the landing not being able to obtain the Sunday papers here, walked to East Weymouth last Sunday morning to obtain the latest news.

Mr. George W. McGowan started for Hingham, Fla., yesterday. He informs that if he likes there, and the prospects of business are good, he will remove his family there in the spring.

Mr. Stephen Tirrell, of East Weymouth, and S. S. Spear, of South Weymouth, have been drawn to serve as jurors at the Supreme Judicial Court, which sits at Dedham 19th inst.

John Thompson and Mr. Page have gone into partnership. They have leased a 5-acre lot of standing wood and are going to clear it, expecting to finish it March 20. The lot is situated in South Scituate.

John Kelley, a boarder of Mr. John Fenstell, while at Randolph Tuesday, got drunk and assaulted parties of that town. He was arrested and sent to the following morning he was tried. Being unable to pay it he was sent to the House of Correction.

Dr. L. L. tressell is occupying rooms in his father's residence, on Pleasant street, South Weymouth, where he will be prepared to perform all operations in Dentistry, extracting teeth, with gas or ether, and making sets of teeth or veneers.

Mr. Patrick Casey has returned from Evansville, Ind., and is now able to work a little.

Mrs. C. Fannie Allyn, of Stoneman, and T. A. E. Hunt; C. F. Forsyth; Charles, Howard Poole; G. E. M. Thayer; S. Henry Clark; Medical Examiner F. F. Forsyth.

North Weymouth.

For some little time the ladies of Rev. Mrs. Tyler's society have been arranging for a grand surprise to Mrs. Tyler, and everything being ready, Friday afternoon of last week was the time appointed. About 3:30 o'clock nearly 60 ladies were seen by Mrs. Tyler, approaching her home, and she gave them a cordial welcome. There being so large a number containing quite a sum of money, which we ask to accept as a partial token of our kindness.

Mr. Abbott C. Bates has taken the contract for the plastering on the annex to the house for the stonemasons to lay the floor to the Atlantic House, Nantasket.

It is rumored that a ledge of limestone is soon to be organized at this place.

Mr. Patrick Casey has returned from Evansville, Ind., and is now able to work a little.

Mrs. C. Fannie Allyn, of Stoneman, and T. A. E. Hunt; C. F. Forsyth; Charles, Howard Poole; G. E. M. Thayer; S. Henry Clark; Medical Examiner F. F. Forsyth.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15, 1884.

Born in Weymouth, Feb. 14, Mr. Willard K. Richards, aged 24 years 7 mos. 22 days.

Funeral Services.

Over the remains of the late Mr. Willard K. Richards were held in the Union church Monday afternoon last, Rev. Mr. Frary officiating, and were attended by a very large number of residents of Weymouth and Braintree, showing the wide estimation in which the deceased was held, and the public sorrow for his loss. Mr. Richards was connected with South Church Commandery, K. T., Delta Lodge F. & A. M., and the Royal Archmen, and these bodies assembled at their hall about 1 p.m. and accompanied by the Weymouth Band, H. E. Clapp, leader, marched to the residence of Mr. Geo. S. Baker, where they received the body and escorted the hearse and carriage containing the mourners to the church, where the services commenced at two o'clock. The altar and casket were profusely covered with elegant floral tributes in crosses, wreaths, tablets, etc., the gifts of the masons and other bodies being the finest character.

Rev. Mr. Frary offered prayer, and after the dimble quartette of members of the church choir had furnished an appropriate musical selection, the pastor read selections from Scripture and added a few words of testimony to the worth of the departed, who in all the walks of life had manifested a faithfulness to duty which won him the regard and respect of all with whom he had been associated, and who to-day feel that they have lost a friend whose memory will long be cherished, and the community one of its most valued members.

After another selection had been rendered by the quartette, and a fervent prayer offered, the benediction was pronounced, and the Masonic service then commenced, it being thought advisable to hold it in the church, in view of the dampness which preceded the day. The W. M. of Delta Lodge, Alden Bowditch, gave the ritual in impressive manner, and the casket was being deposited in the casket by the brethren, the congregation passing in front of the sleeper for a last look at the familiar face, and the procession being reformed, moved to the Village Cemetery, where the remains were deposited in the receiving tomb.

Mr. Richards was the youngest son of the late Warren Richards, his aged mother being still living, but owing to audience indisposition she was not able to attend the funeral. Dr. Thimkin, who was attending her, carefully conveyed her to Mr. Baker's residence before the body was removed, that she might bid farewell to the beloved son who had ever manifested his love and devotion to his mother by kindly service and interest in her welfare. He had been clerk for the firm of Joseph Loud & Co., coal and grain dealers, for many years, and his integrity in financial trusts and his untiring devotion to the business of the office had made his service peculiarly valuable to the firm, while it secured for him the esteem and respect of the entire community, who deeply regret his death.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

It has long since the country has been called upon to mourn the death of one who was well known and much interested to every class of men, and especially to those who were the prophet of an enlarged scope, and his trying places were the Maccabees for pilgrims from distant regions round about; to day he is a fallen hero, though singly perched on his banner; thousands of every name, white glorying in the successful issue of the old fight, cannot but grievefully mourn the loss of him who led them so ably. In Boston the tributes to the departed orator were loving and impressive. At the Hollis street church, where only relatives and friends were gathered, the services were solemn in the extreme and a quiet in harmony with the spirit of the beautiful hymn—

"With silence only as their benediction, God's angels sing."

What a shadow of a great affliction the soul sits down—

At Faneuil Hall, where he first took a triumphal above a howling mob eager to defeat his purposes, a peaceful populace came to mingle their tears with his.

We saw the processions as it moved from Faneuil Hall up through State street and thence to the old "Granary" burying ground. The shadows of evening were beginning to gather at the first hint of the approaching line all the noise of traffic ceased, and "silence came to heal the wounds of sound." Not a dirge was heard but a funeral note—and only the sound of the colored regiment escorting the bearers home to the earth.

Even before the sun set the soldiers who served arms past by, and only one man (who inspired of a person standing near the writer)—"Whine funeral is this?" seemed to be aware of the sadness of the occasion, and of the meeting that hour— "Dread not pain and stop a tear."

B.

The Swedish Family.

An item in last week's issue concerning the family of Swedes was in substance correct, as reported to us; but from another part we learn that credit should be given to others. The facts of the case are as follows:

Mr. Augustina Lundin, a Swedish woman with four children, and in delicate health, has been living in an upper tenement, near the boundary. Her husband, being unable to get work about here, went to Escanaba, Mich., some time ago and has since been unable to send any money home to his family here, and in consequence they have had a rather hard time in procuring the necessities of life. At times they had nothing in the house to eat, but with a borrowed stove managed to keep warm through the cold weather. Their wants have been largely supplied by Mr. Nils Benson, who are told paid the unfortunate woman's rent until he sustained an injury, when he found it impossible to further aid them. Mrs. DePew, wife of the pastor of the Cong' church, while passing the house one day noticed a barefoot boy and at once set about to look into the family's circumstances. Her discovery was that she was made known to the ladies connected with the Cong' Sewing Circle, who went to work to outrace preparing clothing, also soliciting contributions of groceries, boots and shoes, etc., and when it was learned that it was the desire of this unfortunate woman to join her husband, a number of gentlemen contributed toward defraying her expenses, the amount collected being $34.67.

The following named Swedish people, who are not overburdened with the world's riches, contributed to the above fund, and their names we publish by request:—Solomon H. Smith #200, Niles Benson 100, Bernhard Peterson 100, Truve Larson 50, Olof Svenson 50, Old Nilson 100, John Nilson 100, Bengt Nilson 100, Olof Larson 100, Nils Larson 100, Jonas Svenson 100, Charles Olson 50, Lurick Lingquist 100, Thomas Nilson 100, Gottfred Thun 100, August Bratt 100, Johanna Larson 100, Betsy Peterson 100, Skirrid Westman 100, Clara Nilson 50, John Strand 100, Peter Peterson 100, C. Hansen 50, Hingham, Schma Lanson 50, Clara Nilson 300, Anna Anderson 100, A. Berndt 25, Anna Anderson 100.

Monday, Mrs. Lundin started to join her husband, accompanied by her four children, Rev. Mr. DePew and Mrs. Nils Benson going to Boston to see them safely started on their long journey. To show our readers what love the Swedish people have for one another, we will state that two young girls living in Hingham, on learning of Mrs. L's condition, started to foot with a large basket of coal, besides some provisions, becoming extremely exhausted by their undertaking.

A cloud of sadness was cast over this town Tuesday afternoon, when it was learned that a telegram had been received announcing the death of a former resident, Mr. Henry Y. Young, who died suddenly of heart disease at Detroit, Mich., Monday afternoon, at four o'clock, aged 47 years. Mr. Young was for a number of years employed as foreman in the bottomous rooms of the firm of Canterbury & Haskell, of this town, and while employed there the man under his charge became much attached to him and spoke of him as being a man of principle and integrity.

Several months ago he resigned his position to accept another in the large factory of Pinger & Smith, Detroit. Michigan. Two weeks ago he was taken ill with rheumatic pleurisy and malaria, and had been confined to his home. The day he died he was about the house, attending to his affairs. When he was much worse and died suddenly of heart disease, probably hastened by his other ailments. His remains were brought to Wellsville, Mass., Wednesday, where the funeral services were conducted by the Mass. Total Abstinence Society. A cordial invitation to all.

Wicks.

W. T. Burrell has been sick for the past week.

Thomas Burrell is very sick.

William Flood, a young man of this village, very low with consumption.

Baptism.

About thirty-five friends of Mr. A. Derby Turrell gave him a surprise at his home on Friday evening last. The visitors brought with them refreshments, oysters included, and under the direction of the ladies an excellent supper was served.

Temptation Lecture.

Rev. James Yeomans, of England, will speak upon the subject of temptation, at First Union church, next Sunday evening at seven o'clock. Mr. Yeomans comes strongly endorsed by the Mass. Total Abstinence Society. A cordial invitation to all.

Fire.

The barn on the Sam'l Reed place in Washington street, was burned about 2 o'clock this morning, the cause being without doubt incendiary. There was nothing of any great value in the barn. The steamer company saved the house which had taken fire on the rear part.

NORTH WEYMOUTH.

Surprise.

Mr. B. P. Thomas was very pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by a gathering of the Thomas family at his home, to his 69th birthday. Mr. Thomas was the happy recipient of several useful gifts. The evening was very pleasantly spent, vocal and instrumental music and social games being the order of entertainment.

The Cold Water Army had a meeting in the anteroom of the Zion's Hill Sunday school, last Sunday evening. Some very fine singing was furnished by a quartette from South Hingham. The subject was Temperance, and the little ones spoke their pieces quite nicely. The room was filled, many being unable to find seats.

On Sunday evening the Gospel Temperance meeting under the auspices of the Reform Club, was very interesting. The meeting was rather thin, being attended, owing to proper notice not being given in the schools, but a very good meeting was had.

Corporation Notice.

Members of Reynolds Post 58 Corporation are hereby notified that a meeting of said Corporation will be held at the Town Hall, Weymouth, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 18th, inst., at 8 o'clock or immediately after the closing of the Post meeting to be held on the same part.

The W. U. T. F. are to distribute temperance tracts in every family in this section of the town once a month. No doubt good will be accomplished by their zealous and determined efforts in trying to suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors and their use as a beverage.

There seems to be great need of a place where the young men of this village can spend their evenings in a social way. Can't some one of our enterprising citizens bring the matter to the attention of their friends, so that the young men may have a room furnished with reading matter, games, etc.

The Cold Water Army had a meeting in the anteroom of the Zion's Hill Sunday school, last Sunday evening. Some very fine singing was furnished by a quartette from South Hingham. The subject was Temperance, and the little ones spoke their pieces quite nicely. The room was filled, many being unable to find seats.

On Sunday evening the Gospel Temperance meeting under the auspices of the Reform Club, was very interesting. The meeting was rather thin, being attended, owing to proper notice not being given in the schools, but a very good meeting was had.

North Weymouth.

Surprise.

Mr. B. P. Thomas was very pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by a gathering of the Thomas family at his home, to his 69th birthday. Mr. Thomas was the happy recipient of several useful gifts. The evening was very pleasantly spent, vocal and instrumental music and social games being the order of entertainment.

Annual Fair.

The Universalist society held their annual fair Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week. Although the weather and going were unfavorable, the vestry was well filled each evening. An excellent program had been arranged for each night. Wednesday evening was presented two short dramatic pieces of fancy dialogue, followed by two dramatic pieces, exhibition of ventriloquism and logeading by Prof. Upson of Dorchester. His performance was very pleasing, especially to the children, and his mate assistant automatic figure, which seemed to do most of the funny talking and singing, kept the audience in a hearty laugh during his entire performance. Thursday evening's entertainment was given by Prof. R. H. Moul, consisting of trap, crayon sketches, contortionists and magic. His crayon sketching is marvelous beyond description. While playing natural air with one hand on a harmonica, he will draw the other hand in different characters in fine style while his ventriloquism is unsurpassed. He makes his main article figure, an Irish character, talk and sing in the most amusing way. He is a real artist. The audience was greatly pleased at his performance.

The committee had spared no pains in approaching this fair the most attractive one which had been held in this town.

As soon as the curtain fell, the vestry was well filled with the audience.

The time of our annual town meeting approaches we hearquately frequently discussed the new departure of this town in the holding of Ward caucuses, and as near as we can learn, the opinions of the voters of Ward 2 are about equally divided. We hope to see the voters of Ward 2 take a decided stand in favor of the proposed Ward 2 caucus, and that the whole town will support it.

Wicks.

The addresses at the Labor meeting in Williams' hall last Friday evening were full of interest to a good sized audience present, and the duty of every voter to maintain the rights of working men against any and every form of oppression was strongly urged.

The rain of Wednesday caused the walk of the hook under the sidewalk in front of Head's store to fall in, and a large cavity in the walk required the services of the Surveyor. Another hole was made in the walk near Richmon'd street and also required repairing.

A story for those who use 5 trip tickets is the following: An old lady walked up to the ticket window in an Old Col. R. station and asked for a 5 trip ticket to Boston. The agent said he had no 5 trip tickets, but did have 10 trip.

Lady asked if they weren't 5 trip in 5 trip out, and with a 1 know-more-than-tickets-about-such-things look, added "That is what I mean."

The advertisers by circular are making up work for Postmasters about this time, the 8:30 mail here on last Monday morning filling fifteen large sacks, and some of the other offices on the South Shore having three or four each.

Perkins & Joy, of Campello, have contracted to make four pairs of shoes for a Boston firm. The shoes were ordered by a colored preacher from Georgia, and the soles, of which we have seen a pattern, measure 22½ inches. They are twenty-four sizes.

FRIDAY, FEB. 22, 1884.

Weymouth A. & B. Society.

The discussion upon the subject of the Agricultural Society upon the subject of Poultry at the Engine Hall, South Weymouth, on Wednesday evening of last week was the most interesting and successful of my year held. Forty members were present and among them were representatives from the Landing and Quincy, the number would have been largely increased if the weather had been pleasant. President Alvin Raymond occupied the chair in his usual genial manner and soon after eight o'clock called Dr. C. C. Tower to open the discussion. The latter happily alluded to the fact of his being a disciple of Esquiline, the god of medicine, to whom poultry were sacrificed by his worshippers, as the probable reason why he had been selected to open the question. "Brought up in a farm, and always fond of domestic animals, in 1870, about the time of the formation of the agricultural society, he had a henry in his front yard built him a barn, secured to light ledges, and commenced breeding fine poultry, as well as a pleasant diversion from irregular business. His custom had been to breed more for the feather of the bird than for eggs and had from first to last had experience with the black leghorn, white leghorn, brown leghorn, sickle, black cochon, partridge cochon and Plymouth Rock, the latter being in his experience the best to keep, being good market fowl, good layers and generally tame. He showed how good results could be brought about by crossing strains, and gave the experience of two gentlemen living in South Weymouth who had made good profits in a year from a small number of fowl. One gentleman started with 13 birds at the beginning of the year, sold $12 worth of eggs and fowl, and after deducting cost of keeping, showed a net profit of $30. Another example was given of a gentleman from Pond Plain, who started in 1883, with 10 pullets and a rooster, and who by raising chickens, disposing of eggs and rearing stock on hand, now shows a net profit of $100. Dr. Tower also mixed in some humorous allusions regarding troubles from neighboring cats and other difficulties, and in general treated the subject in a manner showing a thorough acquaintance with the subject. He was followed by Messrs. Preston Pratt, Charles Hawes, Wm. Dyer, J. M. Whitehead and D. S. Murray, all of whom brought out some valuable points regarding different kinds of poultry. A synopsis of their remarks would be interesting at this time if space would allow their publication. Mr. Hawes had some fine looking eggs from Leghorn fowls to illustrate his remarks and brought out some very fine points, which were caught up and argued by Mr. Murray. Mr. Dyer gave some statistics showing the enormous extent of the egg and poultry business, and with others claimed that there was money in it if managed rightly, so lively and interesting was the discussion, and many not having opportunity to present their views, it was decided to have the discussion of poultry continued at South Weymouth on Wednesday evening, March 12. At the close of the meeting, which lasted two hours, oysters and other refreshments were provided to regale the members. Should the next evening be pleasant there will surely be a hall full of members and another instructive discussion.

Arrived.

Rev. H. Barney the noted temperance worker, reached E. Weymouth on Friday last, accompanied by his wife, Sunday evening the series of meetings under the auspices of the W. U. T. F. was commenced at the Congregational church, there being a large audience there to greet them. These meetings have continued with increased interest each evening during the week, and will continue to be held the remainder of this week, at the same place and hour (7.30 o'clock).

Next week arrangements have been made to hold these meetings at the M. E. church.

In connection with the above series there is held daily, at the Union rooms, a prayer meeting, and Mr. Barney is very anxious to have all who can attend. Mr. Barney is a very able and eloquent speaker, and is listened to very attentively, as also is Mrs. Barney, who, in the time of writing over 250 signatures have been obtained on the pledge books. Of course this whole number is not drinking men, but quite a large share of them are those that have signed for the first time in life. On Saturday afternoon the ladies are requested to meet at the Union rooms for the purpose of holding a consecration meeting.

Installed.

St. Paul Commandery, United Order of the Golden Circle, was installed at E. Weymouth on Wednesday evening, Feb. 20, by C. F. Preysor, D. G., assisted by members of Orion Com. of South Weymouth. Officers elected and installed as follows:-

James M. Dunbar, P. N. C.; Geo. W. Dyer, N. C.; Mrs. N. H. Fleming, V. N. C.; Josiah Vinal, W. P.; W. H. Spencer, W. I.; Mrs. E. M. Dunbar, N. K. of H.; Mrs. C. L. Gardner, F. K.; R. J. F. Vinal, N. T.; Mrs. J. W. Tirrell, W. L. G.; A. W. Tirrell, W. D. G.; Trustees, J. A. Cushing, A. J. Carey and F. H. Reed. This new branch of the order starts with 23 charter members, embracing some of the best citizens and has a fine prospect for future growth. This order turned itself to all acceptable persons, of both sexes, equal official and beneficial privileges, under conditions that promote their social, fraternal and intellectual interests, in means of music, debate, lectures, readings, social gatherings, and various other instrumentalities. It requires abstinenace from intoxicants as a sacrifice, a belief in the general truths of the Bible and its lessons, being all drawn from the Bible, and to lift its members upward and onward. An important object is to provide a fund, for the benefit of members from which the sum of $300, to $4,000, as the applicant may elect, to be paid to the family or friends upon satisfactory evidence of his or her decease.

Notice.

The Liquor Trade. Officer Nelson Gardner, the liquor detective for the town of Weymouth, has manifested a large degree of ability in the performance of his legal duties, and as many may not be aware of the amount of work done in his office the past year, in not only making arrests, but also in securing convictions of offenders against the statute, we give the list of persons arrested in Weymouth and their sentence by Judge Humphreys, for violation of the statutes in relation to liquor selling and transportation.
